Mr. Williams brings to his new office a lifetime of training in finance and big business. At the time of his appointment in March he was a director in a score of companies and corporations, president of the Richmond Trust and Savings Company, and since 1896 a member of the firm of John L. Williams & Sons, of this city.

Great Railroad Builder.

To the country at large Mr. Williams is best known as a builder and developer of railroads. He was active in the construction of the Seaboard Air Line system, and was from 1898 to 1905 president of that road. Railroad men will recall his fight before the General Assembly of Virginia for a franchise to build the tracks of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, from Richmond to Washington, resulting finally in the granting of track privileges to his road.

Since assuming office as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Williams has retired from the directorates of all of the corporations with which he was connected, except the Richmond Trust and Savings Company, which he has devoted his time exclusively to the government service. He is a personal friend of Secretary McAdoo, of the Treasury, with whom he has been associated in a number of enterprises.

THINKS RICHMOND HAS GOOD CHANCE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., January 13.—Congressman Carter of Virginia, who is a member of the Board of Trade and Commerce, declared today that he was an excellent chance for the city of Richmond to secure one of the regional reserve banks recommended in the Glass-Owen currency bill.

Congressman Glass explained the bill to be derived from the new currency system, and then inquired if the city of Richmond was in time of stress and strain in its business of this country, and then responded to the tone of the bill.

He said that the chief defect of the old system was that in times of panic the currency and in times of boom the currency was too tight, and that the bill would be used in times of panic and to be used in times of boom.

He declared President Wilson is the most patriotic, most courageous, and most intelligent occupant of the White House since the days of Thomas Jefferson.

At the conclusion of Mr. Glass's speech, S. S. Scott, chairman of the association to support the bill, took the floor and said that the bill was a place for locating a regional reserve bank, and that the bill was adopted.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR BANK RESERVE PARTY

Big Delegation Will Leave To-Morrow Morning for Washington to Urge City's Claims—Executive Committee Leaves This Afternoon.

Armed with a mass of data and illustrative tables and maps, the executive committee having in charge the campaign for the location of a reserve bank in Richmond will leave this afternoon at 3:50 o'clock for Washington to perfect arrangements for the hearing that will be granted this city to-morrow by the national organization committee.

The committee will be accompanied by several men who will aid in presenting Richmond's cause. The party that will leave this afternoon is composed of O. J. Sands, John Kerr Branch, Henry E. Litchford, John K. Stacy, John B. Purcell, W. T. Reed, T. M. Carrington, M. Smith, Jr., Dr. S. C. Mitchell, Richard Evelyn Byrd, George Bryan, George C. Gregory, M. C. Patterson, John Stewart Bryan, and James Bolton. Rooms have been reserved for the delegation at the Raleigh Hotel.

Of the party of fifteen just enumerated, only five will make speeches before the organization committee when the hearing is held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The speakers will be O. J. Sands, George J. Stacy, W. T. Reed, T. M. Carrington, Egbert G. Leigh, Jr., and Dr. S. C. Mitchell.

Special Leaves To-Morrow.

A specially chartered train, leaving Elba Station to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock will carry the reserve bank committee, appointed by the several business organizations of the city. The train will leave Washington on the return trip to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, returning to Richmond at 10:30 o'clock.

Among the members of the reserve bank committee who will make the trip are B. H. Kaufman, Fred W. Scott, John H. Hill, W. M. Habington, W. S. Thoms, J. C. Corley, Leon W. Wallerstein, John C. Easley, O. H. Pustun, John Bagby, E. C. Laird, Captain John Landstreet, Clarence Coleman and W. T. Sheppard.

A large number of interested citizens not connected with any of the committees will go to Washington to-morrow to be present at the Richmond hearing. These include C. V. Meredith, J. T. Wilson, Bishop D. J. O'Connell, De Soto Fitzgerald, Olsen Hope, J. C. Freeman, Dr. George W. McDonald, J. A. Patterson, S. Dabney Cronin, S. M. Charles, Hutzler, John M. Taylor, J. H. Smith, Milton E. Marquess, George W. Kolner, John Garland Pollard, C. B. Garnett, Robert Lecky, J. L. Z. Morris, John H. Waller, Langhorne Putney, Henry W. Rountree, Thomas S. Wheelwright, F. Sitterling, J. R. Paschall, E. A. Saunders, J. Warren P. Taylor, M. J. Caples and Barton H. Grundy.

Governor Mann Going.

The Thursday morning delegation will be headed by Governor Mann and Governor Ansie. It was thought probable also yesterday that Governor Stuart would accompany the party. The City Council will send President Adams of the Board of Aldermen, and President Peters of the Common Council. There is a probability also that the General Assembly will under a special joint resolution today, appoint a committee to accompany the Richmond delegation.

Business arrangements for the Thursday morning special are in charge of Secretary C. P. Walcott, Jr., of the Business Men's Club. Those who are entitled to tickets will be supplied upon application to him either at the club or at the train.

UNABLE TO MEET INTEREST ON BONDS

Mexico Will Default in Semi-annual Payment on National Debt.

INTEREST IN WASHINGTON

Fugitives From Ojinaga Will Be Taken to Fort Bliss, at El Paso.

Washington, January 13.—Announcement by the Huerta government of its intention to default in the payment of the semiannual interest on the bonds of Mexican national debt created much interest in diplomatic circles here to-night and brought out much speculation, especially among diplomatic representatives accredited to the country in which the greater part of the loans are held. While State Department officials were understood to accept this step as a natural development in the policy of the Huerta regime, no comment was forthcoming. Secretary Bryan said he had not been officially advised of this latest turn.

The discussion of European diplomatists turned to the security which their nations will have for the enormous sums which go to make up the aggregate of the Mexican debt, external and internal. It was pointed out that in the question of Mexican finance, the concerted European powers, on account of the great sums at stake, have a keen interest even than the United States. European diplomatists, therefore, have not been disposed to take seriously proposals emanating from the Constitutionalists as to their proposed repudiation of loans advanced to Huerta. They take the view that whatever influence finally prevails in Mexico City, all obligations incurred in time of General Huerta's administration will be honored. It is admitted that war loans advanced during the past year may not be so easy of liquidation.

Brigadier-General Diaz, commanding the border forces in Texas, reported to the War Department to-day that a count of the Mexican Federal fugitives taken at Ojinaga at El Paso, Texas, showed 2,352 officers and soldiers and 400 women in his custody, besides 703 horses, 567 mules and 334 burros.

Summarizing conditions at Presidio, General Diaz said:

"Have made arrangements with railroad to transport all prisoners on arrival at Marfa to Port Bliss. Have instructed General Scott to arrange detention camp. Large number of animals, both great expense and nuisance. Mexican consul wants to sell them if his government permits. I recommend that they be sold to the American vision customs officials, with duty paid on sale. Commanding officer, Presidio, now arranging two or three supply camps between Presidio and Marfa. Transfer of prisoners probably will begin in a day or two. Everything possible being done for their comfort."

Authority to sell the animals will be given to the customs officials. General Diaz suggests as to the payment of duty. It is expected the Mexican government will agree to this arrangement.

The principal internal and external loans of Mexico are held for the most part in the United States. Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, and the United States are the principal holders of the coupons are as follows:

Internal 2 percent silver bonds. Coupons payable on June 26 and December 31.

External 5 percent gold bonds. Coupons payable on June 1 and October 1.

Consolidated gold bonds of 1899. Coupons payable January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1.

4 percent gold bonds of 1904. Coupons payable June 1 and December 1.

UNDERWOOD PREDICTS UNUSUAL PROSPERITY

Industrial Awakening, He Says, Will Put Panic Preachers to Shame.

Washington, January 13.—An industrial awakening "that will put panic preachers to shame" was promised to-day by Democratic leader Underwood after Republicans in the House had charged that the American people more than has been accomplished heretofore in the history of the country. We have secured the results which the Republican party struggled for in the course of the past decade, and we have secured them by the most honorable and most successful means.

The Democratic leader said the "steel mills in his district were working double shifts despite the fact that practically all of their product was put on the tariff free list. He declared John W. Wamaker as saying that the "freedom of trade ought to be secured for the people of the country in the next year."

demonstrated in the present administration's experience with the trust question. It is contemplated to place the Commissioner of Corporations at the head of the interstate trade commission, but to include in its membership business men who would know business methods sufficiently to conduct the necessary inquiries and furnish the desired information.

With this in mind, the discussion of the whole subject at to-day's Cabinet meeting, the talk of "slowing up" on the administration program and postponing trust legislation until the Democratic party is in power, apparently disappeared in executive quarters. The administration is determined to keep work of trust reform within certain limits, and to push it forward to rapid completion.

Ensign Must Answer Charges.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., January 13.—To answer charges of conduct unbecoming an officer, Ensign Brecht had been detached from the battleship USS Oregon, and was ordered to report to the receiving ship, the USS Oregon, at El Paso, Texas, to-night. He had not reported to the receiving ship, and the charges of conduct unbecoming an officer were still pending.

PUBLIC HEARINGS ON WESTERN TRIP

Two Cities Added to Original Thirteen to Be Visited by Committee.

Washington, January 13.—Revised plans for the Western trip of the reserve bank organization committee were made public to-night. To the list of thirteen cities originally selected as points where public hearings will be held, have been added El Paso, Tex., and El Paso, Texas. The time to be consumed on the trip has been extended four days. The committee expects to be in Washington on February 18, four days ahead of the time limit set upon national banks to announce their intention to enter the new system.

With the nomination by President Wilson to-day of John Skelton Williams, as Comptroller of the Currency, it became possible that the full reserve bank organization committee might make the trip. The committee is expected to leave on Saturday, January 17, and to arrive in El Paso, Tex., on Sunday, February 15.
